Northern France is rapidly emerging as a key location in the Battery Technology landscape.

With billions of Euros in investment, northern France is rapidly emerging as a manufacturing hub for electric vehicle battery technology.

Northern France is home to seven car manufacturing sites, including Renault, Toyota and Stallantis as well as a dense network of supply chain companies: the key reason why battery business are keen to position themselves in this region.

The Battery Tech Expo France is perfectly located to showcase the Battery Technology supply chain in France.

Join us at The Battery Tech Expo France to explore the future.
